Mention your international travel plans and history during today’s visit. Your healthcare provider can make recommendations for a healthy trip and quicker diagnosis if you return feeling unwell. Ask for destination-specific tips and updates on disease outbreaks across the globe.